

IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
FOR THE SOUTHERN DISTRICT OF ILLINOIS

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA,	)
	)
Plaintiff,	)
	)
vs.	)	Case No. 91-CR-30106-MJR
	)
RANDY LEE FLOWERS,	)
	)
Defendant.	)

ORDER REGARDING MOTION TO REDUCE SENTENCE

REAGAN, District Judge:

By motion filed June 6, 2008, Defendant Flowers seeks to reduce his sentence in the above-captioned case (imposed by the late Judge William L. Beatty in September 1992) under 18 U.S.C. § 3582(c)(2). This Order ADVISES Defendant Flowers how his motion will be handled in this District Court.

On December 10, 2007, the United States Supreme Court scrutinized the crack-cocaine-to-powder-cocaine sentencing disparity contained in the U.S. Sentencing Guidelines and held that federal district courts can deviate from the Guidelines in appropriate circumstances. Kimbrough v. United States, 128 S. Ct. 558 (2007). On December 11, 2007, the Sentencing Commission decided that the amendments in question (which reduce the base offense level for certain crack cocaine offenses) would be retroactively applied as of March 3, 2008.

On December 19, 2007, Chief Judge Herndon of this Court issued Administrative Order 102. That Order addressed the amendments to the Guidelines and the motions - like Flowers' - being filed in the wake of these amendments.

Flowers' motion has been docketed as "Document # 134." A copy of Administrative Order 102 is being mailed to Flowers by the Clerk's Office of this Court. Pursuant to that Order, both the Federal Public Defender's Office and the United States Attorney's Office have been advised of this motion.

Although Administrative Order 102 appointed the Public Defender's Office to represent Flowers in proceedings on his motion to reduce sentence, that appointment does not prevent Flowers from hiring private counsel, including any lawyer who may have represented him in earlier proceedings in this Court or the Court of Appeals.

Finally, Administrative Order 102 stated that the United States need not respond before March 10, 2008 (suggesting that the United States would file a response after March 10th). The Court CLARIFIES that - at this time - no formal response need be filed by the United States, and no briefing schedule will be set by the Court. The undersigned Judge is carefully monitoring the status of each motion to reduce sentence, including Flowers' motion. If a formal response is needed, or if a hearing would be helpful, the undersigned Judge will set a briefing schedule or hearing.

IT IS SO ORDERED.

DATED this 6th day of June 2008.

s/ Michael J. Reagan
MICHAEL J. REAGAN
United States District Judge